Two new and delightful plays are in active preparation at Grover's. FORD'S THEATER .- Maggie Mitchell has laid "Fanchon" aside temporarily, and will tonight appear in her next best character, as in "The Pearl of Savoy, or a Mother's Prayer." In order to produce the play properly, Mr. Ford has at much expense produced new scenery, new and characteristic costumes and appropriate music. This play is not quite so interesting as "Fanchon," but it possesses many beautiful features.

THE CIRCUS remains at the corner of New lorYork avenue and 6th street, and Rivers and Derious have the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts to please are appreciated, for the tent is always well filled. The company is throughout a good one, and the performances are of an interesting and amusing character. To pigat, Mr. and Madame Showles will intro-MANTERBURY.-Mr. Lea announces a good for to-night. He has effected a re-engagement with John Denier, the noted gymnast and ment with John Denier, the noted at perilous fope-walker, who will perform the perilous leat of walking blindfolded fron the stage to the gallery with a young lady on his back. The other old and popular members of the company still remain with Mr. Lea, and will appear to-night.

RELIGIOUS REVIVALS.—Last night, Rev. Mr. Thrush, pastor at McKendree Chapel, preached a very interesting sermon from the text of Proverbs, 29th chapter, 1st verse: " He that being often reproved, hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." The Chapel was crowded with at-tentive hearers, and at the conclusion of the discourse the usual services at the altar du-ring revival seasons were resumed, and several presented themselves for the prayers of

At Ryland Chapel, where Rev. J. M. H. Lemon is pastor, a series of very spirited meetings is in progress, and much interest is manifested, and penitents present themselves nightly at the altar. At the East Washington Methodist Episcopal church, for many years known as the Ebenezer. an interesting meeting is in progress, and quite a number of conversions have already been reported This station is under the charge of Rev. H, N. Sipes, who last evening preached an interesting sermon on Lot lingering in Sodom, after which several penitents came forward to the altar for prayer.

At the East Washington Methodist Protestant church (corner of 5th street and Virginia avenue) under the charge of Rev. W. W. Reese, there is also an interesting meeting in progreas, the little edifice being nightly crowded, and numbers presenting themselves at the altar. A number of conversions have already been reported, and the interest taken seems to be on the increase.

THIRD WARD MEETING -Another meeting discretise means for procuring substitutes or attended was held on Saturday evening at temperance Hall, and was largely attended.

Mr. N. D Larner (presiding) stated that the deficiency had been reduced to 26, and that he devise means for procuring substitutes or had put in representative recruit for President Lincoln, said recruit being credited to the Third Ward. The Chair also desired to correct a statement made at another ward meeting, by Mr. Semmes, to the effect that the Third Ward had outbid him, (Mr. S.) for a recruit. Mr. Larner said he had never, knowingly, in the present canvass, outbid any ward of the city.

Mr. Wright, on leave, withdrew his motion to offered on Friday night that the funds of the bers, and submitted one which was adopted, that all drafted men of the ward who had not contributed to the funds of the association be equested to meet at Temperance Hall on Monday night, and deposit $300 each, with the President, in order to procure recruits to fill the quota. If they do not come forward, fill the quota. If they do not come forward, the funds shall be equally divided among those who have contributed. On motion of Mr. Sharretts, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Lincoln for his generous donation to the ward. FUNERAL -Yesterday afternoon the funeral

Mr. Lockwood, after which amanaly attended, it being one of the largest futhe procession was formed, and proceeded to the Bastern Burial Ground, where the remains mainterred. Brown & Alexander preparatory to its being coffined and sent to Chenyfield, Washington county, Maine, in charge of Capt. Chas. A. Clark, Gen. B. sassistant adjutant general. Gen. B.'s brigade suffered severely, all of the field officers being placed hors du cembat. Gen. Burnham came out as colonel of the 6th Maine, and was promoted last March.

SUBSTITUTES IN DEMAND .- Men who were drafted, and who are now on the lookout for substitutes, express fears that they will have to leave their business and their families and fall into the ranks. A few days before the draft substitutes were plenty, at very low prices; but since the wheel began to turn, substitutes have disappeared suddenly, and the prices ran up swiftly. Until this morning the lowest price offered was $500, and that not accepted; $500 to $900 being demanded. The searcity is attributed to the brokers' strategywithholding the substitutes until the last moment, in order to secure the highest prices. The brokers deny the charge, and contend that the scarcity is real.

Keeler, Esq., and on Saturday entered on his duties. Mr. Welles, although a young man, brings to the position quite a large experience, and no doubt he will prove a valuable officer.

The drama of "Ben Bolt," and the comedy of the "Spoiled Child," will both be performed; all the members of Mr. Grover's company having volunteered, as has also Koppitz and his grand orchestra.

DIED. On Saturday morning, October 1st, departed this fe, ABELADE VIRGINIA, daughter of Joseph delade Virginia Carter.

Her guardian angel heard her song
And swift on high he bore along.
Those strains which charm our mortal ear
Until they reached that heavenly sphere.

Where all accordant notes unite Where all is joy, and life, and light. They fell upon her Saviour's ear He bade a messenger draw near, And thus to him his errand gave Twas such as she I died to save,

Let her no more and exile roam. Bid sorrowing parents not to mourn
The child from their embraces tern, Transplanted to a heavenly clime
Unfettered by the bands of time,
She'll in angelic beauty shine.
About the throne of love divine.
